

Directions

Based on the application and virtual visit, please evaluate the school's qualifications to be a recipient of the Cobb County School District's Library Learning Commons Certification. A school must earn an overall score of 12 or higher. Schools who do not meet the scoring criteria will be provided with specific feedback and encouraged to apply again the following school year. Space is provided at the end to write additional comments.

1. Your Information

Name

School / Company

Email Address

2. School Information

School

Principal

Library Media Specialist

3. Date Assessed

Date

4. Services: The applicant has provided at least 5 examples of services and how they support the Library Learning Commons philosophy and the school's learning culture.

- Exceeds (4 points): More than five services are provided, and they show how they support the LC philosophy and school's learning community.
- Meets (3 points): Five services are provided, and they show how they support the LC philosophy and school's learning community.
- Almost (2 points): Five services are provided, but they do not show how they support the LC philosophy and school's learning community.
- Doesn't meet requirements (1 point): Fewer than 5 services are provided, and/or the services do not meet the Library Learning Commons examples of services.

5. Please type any additional comments regarding services you have here.

6. Resources: The applicant has provided at least 5 examples of resources and how they support the Library Learning Commons philosophy and the school's learning culture.

- Exceeds (4 points): More than five resources are provided, and they show how they support the LC philosophy and school's learning community.
- Meets (3 points): Five resources are provided, and they show how they support the LC philosophy and school's learning community.
- Almost (2 points): Five resources are provided, but they do not show how they support the LC philosophy and school's learning community.
- Doesn't meet requirements (1 point): Fewer than five resources are provided, and/or the resources do not meet the Library Learning Commons examples of resources.

7. Please type any additional comments regarding resources you have here.

8. Intentional Spaces: The applicant has provided at least 5 examples of intentional spaces, and how they support the Library Learning Commons philosophy and the school's learning culture.

- Exceeds (4 points): More than five intentional spaces are provided, and they show how they support the LC philosophy and school's learning community.
- Meets (3 points): Five intentional spaces are provided, and they show how they support the LC philosophy and school's learning community.
- Almost (2 points): Five intentional spaces are provided, but they do not show how they support the LC philosophy and school's learning community.
- Doesn't meet requirements (1 point): Less than five intentional spaces are provided, and/or they do not meet the Library Learning Commons examples of intentional spaces.

9. Please type any additional comments regarding intentional spaces you have here.

10. Additional Evidence: Applicants should provide two additional pieces of evidence showing examples of how their Library Learning Commons' spaces, services, and/or resources are utilized.

- Exceeds (4 points): More than two additional pieces of evidence are provided and show how the Library Learning Commons spaces, services, and/or resources are being utilized.
- Meets (3 points): Two additional pieces of evidence are provided and show how the Library Learning Commons spaces, services, and/or resources are being utilized.
- Almost (2 points): One additional piece of evidence is provided, and it shows how the Library Learning Commons spaces, services, and/or resources are being utilized.
- Does Not Meet (1 point): One additional piece of evidence is provided, but it does not efficiently show how the Library Learning Commons spaces, services, and/or resources are being utilized.

11. Principal's Letter

- Principal's letter is submitted and supports the certification of the Library Learning Commons.
- Principal's letter is submitted but does not support the certification of the Library Learning Commons.
- Principal's letter is not submitted.

12. Please type any additional comments you have here about the school library program or the LLC Certification process. Thank you!